September 10, 2018

MVA School Spirit Week

Beginning on September 10-14, MVA students will show their class pride as they take part in Spirit Week. Our MVA Student Association has planned a fun and exciting week for our students. So, bring out that funny hairstyle or awesome class colors as we all take part in spirit week.

Senior Portraits

Prestige Portraits will be on campus to conduct the Senior Portraits on September 13.

MVA School Picnic

At the end of spirit week on September 14, the MVA Student Association has planned a fun-filled day for our students at Cuesta Park.

CCC Varsity Flag Football Friendship Games

MVA Varsity boys and girls will participate at the Central California Conference Flag Football Friendship Games on September 16 at Central Valley Christian Academy. Please come out and support our students.

Pacific Union Conference Student Leadership Conference

The Pacific Union Conference will be hosting their 30th annual Student Leadership on September 27-29, at Leonie Meadows. MVA student leaders will take part in this training session in hopes of bringing leadership skills and knowledge to share with the student body at MVA.

MVA Academy Day

Thursday, October 18, 2018 at Mountain View Academy. MVA would like to invite students in the 8th grade or students looking for a high school to attend our Academy Day. Visitors will be able to experience MVA and all it has to offer them. We look forward to having our visitors on campus in October! If you know of students that are unable to attend Academy Day in October, they are welcome to schedule a visitation day to shadow a student through the MVA office.

Celebration in Sound

The MVA Music Department will be hosting their annual "Celebration in Sound" on October 21st. Please note the change of date on your calendars. More information to follow.

CCC Youth Prayer Conference

Central California Conference will be holding their annual Youth Prayer Conference on October 25-28. MVA will join our conference schools as they seek wisdom and guidance from our Lord, Jesus Christ through prayer.
